

Greetings from the Operation Walk Pittsburgh Team!

We wanted to send a quick note to let you know the entire team has safely arrived back in Pittsburgh after a truly amazing and fulfilling week in Guatemala. We greatly appreciated everyone's thoughts, prayers, and support during the trip – we were thinking of all of you, too, and hope you enjoyed the daily updates and photos!

With your help, we were able to provide 50 people with 63 joint replacement surgeries they needed to better their lives. Because the week was such a success, and because there is still so much need, we are excited to announce that Operation Walk Pittsburgh has agreed to return to Antigua, Guatemala in August 2010 for another week of life-changing surgeries!

And, as you may already know, in November 2009, team members will also perform several free surgical treatments at Magee-Womens Hospital of UPMC in Pittsburgh.

We will continue to be in touch with updates and more information about upcoming events, fundraisers, and other ways for you to be involved with Operation Walk Pittsburgh, so stay tuned...

Thank you for your support in "granting the wish to walk"!
