OPERATION WALK PITTSBURGH

granting the wish to walk

Operation Walk Pittsburgh is a not-for-profit volunteer medical service program that provides free surgical treatment to patients with disabling arthritis in developing countries. Operation Walk also educates in-country orthopaedic surgeons, nurses, physical therapists and other health care professionals on the treatments, processes and surgical techniques for diseases of the hip and knee.

Operation Walk Pittsburgh Team Participates in the Pittsburgh Marathon

The Pittsburgh Marathon returned after six years and there was a strong presence from Operation Walk Pittsburgh in the crowd of 10,000. Running in support of Operation Walk were Marathon runners Mike Halahan and Tim Levison, 1/2 Marathon runner Chris Tully and 2 Marathon Relay Teams Janice, Scott and Eric Harmon and Melissa Wilson and Jen Blassey, Dana Riggs, Ann Trevellini and Kristy Tully. Congratulations to Tim Levison who qualified for the 2010 Boston Marathon!! Operation Walk Pittsburgh also had a booth at the Marathon Expo to help raise awareness of our cause and our upcoming mission to Guatemala in August.

A good time was had by all and we would like to thank all of the runners and their sponsors for their support of Operation Walk Pittsburgh and look forward to seeing you on the course next year!
